Free Network Installation

Purchase 20 or more Gateway E-Series managed PCs between May 15th, 2000 and June 30th, 2000, and you'll qualify for free installation of your new Gateway desktops.

Like the Gateway E-Series, this service was specifically designed to help you maximize your IT resources. Use it to free your IT staff from time-consuming installation procedures, preserving their availability and expertise for critical day-to-day issues.

Service Features

A Gateway supplied engineer will unpack and inspect your new Gateway desktops, connect the monitor, keyboard, mouse and any local printers, perform basic hardware diagnostics and verify installation of Windows® 95, Windows 98 or Windows NT Workstation. The engineer will then install and configure any appropriate network client software and verify network connectivity.

Qualifications

To qualify for this service, you must purchase 20 or more Gateway E-Series systems between May 15th, 2000 and June 15th 2000. All systems must be included on the same invoice. Free installation is only available for a single business location and may not be combined with any other offer other than our ultra-competitive pricing program for E-Series desktops.

Additional 2% Discount off of your contract pricing through June 30, 2000.

Not available with any other offers. No additional discounts apply.
